

Session Name:

Principals' Round Table

Session Type: Q&A

Date: 04 Mar 2016 08:00AM – 10 Mar 2016 05:00PM

Users	Questions	Total Votes
20	14	24

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:09PM

Do your teachers write their own curriculum for the gardens in your school?

Votes: 3

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:11PM

Do you pull teachers off teaching assignments to keep the program going? Do you use study hall or advisory groups? I guess I'm asking about scheduling time for kids and staff to be in the garden.

Votes: 3

Shown

Answered

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:15PM

How do you fund your efforts?

Votes: 3

Shown

Answered

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:34PM

Do any of you work with SHIP? Statewide Health Improvement Program? If yes, please share your experience.

Votes: 3

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:07PM

Are you a gardener?

Votes: 2

Shown

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:11PM

Have you encountered difficulty getting other school administrators supporting your efforts?

Votes: 2

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:11PM

Who has been the biggest driver of establishing a garden at your school?

Votes: 2

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:35PM

Have parents been involved ?

Votes: 2

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:08PM

How are you supporting the gardens in your schools?

Votes: 1

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:30PM

Brian, How would you keep deer from invading an apple orchard?

Votes: 1

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:33PM

As far as grants goes, The Life Time Foundation currently doesn't fund school gardens, but I suggest looking into one of our partners, the Whole Kids Foundation.

Votes: 1

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:39PM

Do you use what you grow in the school lunches?

Votes: 1

Shown

---

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:37PM

Do you have opinions about using native plants in your gardens?

Votes: 0

Shown

Anonymous • 04 Mar 12:50PM

How close are you to incorporating your harvest into your lunch recipes?

Votes: 0

Shown