

Schoolyard Gardens Conference

New Places to Grow

Friday, March 3, 2017

Minnesota Landscape Arboretum

SCHOOLYARD GARDENS provide an incomparable, hands-on opportunity for educators to learn how to meet academic standards, engage with community partners, learn about agriculture, healthy eating and cultural competency, and connect with natural systems. Whether you're a beginner or schoolyard garden veteran, join us in March and learn innovative strategies for building, sustaining, and engaging diverse learners in a thriving schoolyard garden.

2017 ENDORSING ORGANIZATION GUIDELINES

No financial commitment is necessary to become an endorsing organization.

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Contribute to the growing success of school gardens in Minnesota by becoming an endorsing organization at the 5th Annual Schoolyard Garden Conference on Friday, March 3, 2017! Over 350 teachers, school administrators, school food service professionals, Master Gardeners, parents and other school garden supporters attend this event to share their ideas and resources for building and sustaining school gardens.

2017 TOPICS:

- Horticulture and gardening training: understanding the basics and extending your growing season
- Year Round Gardening
- Resources for sustainability: starting and keeping your schoolyard garden program going
- Case studies of successful, innovative programs including cultural competency
- Introducing the first annual, "Innovative Problem Solving Showcase"

BENEFITS OF ENDORSEMENT

- Endorsing organizations will be listed on program agenda
- Endorsing organizations will be included on the Arboretum website and in the web-based follow-up report
- Each endorsing organization will have space on a literature table for copies of one hand-out for participants
- Members and staff of endorsing organizations may attend the summit at the member rate
