Friday, March 3, 8:30-4:00

At the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum

$65 Arboretum members and Conference Affiliates / $75 General Admission

(Fee includes Arboretum admission, lunch and coffee breaks)

SCHOOLYARD GARDENS provide an incomparable, hands-on opportunity for students to meet academic standards, engage with community partners, learn about agriculture, healthy eating and connect with natural systems. Whether you are a beginner or schoolyard garden veteran, join us in March to learn innovative strategies for building, sustaining and engaging everyone in a thriving schoolyard garden.

2017 KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Rick Sherman

Farm to School/School Garden Coordinator, Oregon Department of Education

Presented by the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum and the University of Minnesota Extension Master Gardener Volunteer Program in collaboration with the Minnesota Schoolyard Gardens Coalition
