Volunteer Job Description: Children’s Garden Maintenance

Description
Apply your vegetable garden skills to the benefit of the Children’s Garden. Help plant and maintain the children’s garden space for the Arboretum’s Children’s Garden Program. Perhaps you love to garden but don’t have space. This summer, adopt the children’s garden as your place to create a beautiful and bountiful oasis of flowers and vegetable for the children’s garden program.

Responsibilities
- Join a team of gardeners who meet once every other week to work on garden maintenance projects in the children’s garden.

Requirements
- Ability to give 3 hours of time every other week.
- Love of kids, vegetable gardening, and the out of doors is a must.
- Basic vegetable garden knowledge, including knowledge of weeds, and familiarity with using basic garden tools.
- Tools will be provided.

Benefits
- Enjoy the pride of maintaining a beautiful space that is used and enjoyed by 100 plus children throughout the summer.
- Bolster your own gardening knowledge.
- Take home extra garden produce when available.
