THIS CONFERENCE is a collaboration by two of the University’s flagship institutions dedicated to public health and well-being. The summit is the third annual research symposium of the Healthy Foods, Healthy Lives Institute and signals the Arboretum’s ongoing focus on health-giving plants.