Volunteer Opportunity Description:  Supervising A Student Group

Description/Purpose

A group of students from Waconia High School are coming to clean up the Learning Center classrooms while they're not being used on Martin Luther King Day. They will need assistance with finding cleaning products and will need supervision.

Responsibilities/Tasks

Help Kim from the Volunteer Center supervise this high school group with assistance from their teachers and chaperones.

Required Skills

Patience, must like working with high school aged kids, attention to detail

Time Commitment and Schedule Details

Students will be coming in on Monday, January 18th as a Martin Luther King Day service project. They will be here for a maximum of 2 hours and will likely come around 11 am. There are 2 Volunteers needed for this task and they will be updated on exact times after the high school arranges transportation. There will be no one conducting classes at the Learning Center that day, as it is a holiday.

Benefits/Impact

Keeping our classrooms clean is very important during cold and flu season. You will be doing a service to both children and coworkers by volunteering your time on that day.
