Volunteer Opportunity Description: Hsiao-Ho Chinese Garden Planting Project, September 21-25, 2015

Description/Purpose

The Arboretum will need assistance in the planting and the establishment of the new Chinese Garden area.

Responsibilities/Tasks

Plant perennials / wild flowers and grasses along the banks of the new Chinese Garden pond edge.

Required Skills

Gardening and planting skills. Opportunities to work in the water with waiters if desired but not required.

Time Commitment and Schedule Details

Planting will begin when major construction is completed. The planting will be over a week period, September 21-25. Time can be flexible, 8am - 7:30pm. There is also an opportunity to be a part of the Chinese Garden volunteer team for the 2016 season. Volunteers will be trained on site.

Benefits/Impact

Volunteers are critical for the Arboretum to achieve its goal as being a first class demonstration garden for the public. Volunteers will have a unique opportunity to be a part of the construction and future maintenance of the Hsiao-Ho Chinese Garden.
