

CLIFTON J. AICHINGER

BS, Recreation Resource Management – University of Minnesota, College of Forestry

Cliff is the Administrator for Ramsey-Washington Metro Watershed District. He worked for city, county and state agencies prior to his serving for the last 21 years as District Administrator for the Ramsey-Washington Metro Watershed District. Cliff has been responsible for administering the District budget, programs and 15 staff. District program activities include, water quality and flood control capital improvements, wetlands management, construction permit program, natural resources management, TMDL planning and implementation, watershed education, water quality monitoring, and watershed research.